Teachers of Tomorrow 2005

According to the National Education Association we are facing the most critical teacher shortage in history. Nationwide, some 2.4 million teachers will be needed in the next 11 years because of teacher attrition, retirement, and increased student enrollment. Teachers of Tomorrow is a pre-professional organization whose goal is to create, encourage, and support clubs that recruit annually a cohort of outstanding students who are motivated toward preparation for a teaching career.

Call for Presenters

We welcome presentation proposals for the Fifth Annual "Spark an Interest in Teaching" Conference. The conference will be held on the campus of the University of Central Arkansas in Conway, Arkansas, on November 10, 2005. We are encouraging individuals or teams of presenters to attend and submit proposals for sessions that actively engage (even spark) the conference participants!

The deadline for proposals is October 7, 2005.

The theme for this conference is:
"I am a Life toucher - I teach"

Strands include: Future Educators/TOT Clubs, Teachers as Professionals, Teaching to Change Lives, How to Become a Teacher, Life in the Classroom, and Help with Financial Aid.

Conference sessions are 30 minutes. Electronic presentation equipment will be available upon request.
